By Order,
M. VENKATESA IYENGAR,
Secretary to Government,
General Department.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION (INDIA).

NOTICE.

A competitive examination will be held in Delhi on Monday 19th October, 1936, and subsequent days, for entry to the Indian Military Academy, Dehra Dun, in the term beginning on the 1st February, 1937, and also for entry to the Royal Indian Navy.

2. The examination will be a combined one for the purpose of filling vacancies in the Indian Military Academy and the Royal Indian Navy. A candidate may apply to be admitted to the examination for both or either. If he wishes to be admitted as a candidate for both, he should state this on his application form. Separate applications are not required. He will be required to pay the application and examination fees once only. If he proves successful as a candidate for both he will ordinarily be assigned to the one for which he expressed a preference in his application; but the Government of India reserve power to assign him to either.

3. At this examination 15 vacancies will be offered for entry to the Indian Military Academy. The Governor-General-in-Council, however, reserves to himself the right to fill the last three vacancies by nomination from among those who have qualified but failed to obtain sufficient marks to secure one of the first twelve vacancies. One vacancy will be offered for admission to the Engineer Branch of the Royal Indian Navy.

4. The examination will be the same for all arms of the Indian Army, i.e., Cavalry, Artillery, Signals, Engineers and Infantry. Those cadets who wish to elect for the Artillery, Engineers and Signals will be permitted to do so during their course at the Academy, at the discretion of the Commandant, provided they obtained 40 per cent. of the maximum marks in each of the subjects, Lower Mathematics and Physics, at the examination.

5. Candidates for the Indian Military Academy examination must have been born not earlier than the 2nd November, 1916, and not later than the 1st November, 1918, and must be unmarried and domiciled in India. Candidates for the Royal India Navy examination must have been born not earlier than the 2nd May, 1917, and not later than the 1st May, 1919, and must be unmarried and domiciled in India. These age limits can in no case be relaxed. A candidate who desires to appear at the examination is required to submit his application in the prescribed form with the necessary documents on or before the 1st July, 1936, in accordance with the instructions given on that form. Copies of the Rules and the Application Form, etc., may be obtained from the Local Government or Administration or Durbar concerned.

The fact that an application form has been supplied, on whatever date, will not be accepted as an excuse for the late submission of an application. Candidates who delay their requests for forms until a late date will do so at their own risk.

6. Applications should be sent by registered post. If a candidate fails to register his application, he does so at his own risk. If a candidate desires an acknowledgment, he should send his application "registered, acknowledgment due."

NOTE.—If any candidate has appeared at the examination held in March/April, 1936, for entry to the Indian Military Academy, Dehra Dun, and the Royal Air Force College, Cranwell, and, in the event of his not being successful thereat, wishes to appear at the examination to be held in October, 1936, he must submit his application by the prescribed date without waiting for the results of the former examination. Should he have been successful, his candidature for the October
